

Plant Manager – Charlotte, NC

NPursuit, LLC has an immediate opening for a Plant Manager in Charlotte, NC. Our customer is an international leader in the pharmaceutical industry with a track record of profitability, consistent growth and promoting from within. As the Head of Site Operations, the Plant Manager will have overall responsibilities for the facility. The Plant Manager will directly manage EHS, quality, production/manufacturing, engineering & maintenance and most importantly financial objectives. Candidates with significant continuous improvement, Lean Manufacturing, Six Sigma experience are desired as this is a world class manufacturing operation experiencing significant growth.

Additional responsibilities include:

- Manage and mentor QA, Environmental Health & Safety, Production Maintenance, Purchasing, Transportation, Engineering and Administrative support.
- Ensure ongoing commitment to safety, employee training and development.
- Supervise, mentor and coach the management team to improve quality and total production output.
- Encourage continuous improvement programs; Demand Flow Technology (DFT), Kaizen, Six Sigma, SMED, Cycle Time Reduction and other Lean Manufacturing Techniques.

Candidates applying for this position must have a proven track record managing a manufacturing operation preferably as the site leader. Candidates coming from a background in pharmaceuticals, plastics, chemical, packaging or food is encouraged to apply. Superior leadership skills are required.

Education and Skills

- BS or equivalent work experience is required. Advanced degree including MBA a plus.
- Minimum of 5-10 years of manufacturing experience
- Superior leadership skills.
- Lean Manufacturing or Six Sigma knowledge and experience.

Compensation

Salary Range: $100,000 - $120,000

How to Apply

If you are ready to soar to the next level, apply online now at www.npursuit.net and/or send your resume to recruiter@npursuit.net.